

W. W. WYATT.
TERMS:
INvariably in Advance.
One copy, one year, $1.00
Five copies, one year, $4.00
Twenty copies, one year, $10.00

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

W. W. WYATT.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOLUME IV.—NUMBER 40.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1875.

WHOLE NUMBER 195.

LOUISVILLE AND CINCINNATI

SHORT LINE RAILROAD

CINCINNATI AND THE EAST

Columbus, Ohio, Pittsburg, Harrisburg,

Philadelphia,

NEW YORK.

And Other Eastern Cities.

WITHOUT CHANGE.

The Only Line with passengers from the South making direct connections at Louisville with

One Train in Advance of all

Other Lines.

Time from Louisville to New York.

Only Thirty-two Hours.

This line is now-halted and entirely free from delays. Being equipped with the celebrated Westinghouse Patent Air-brake, it is the only line

Only All Rail Line

From Louisville passing over the great Iron

Route to New York.

Passengers via this line avoid a tedious halt through Louisville, by changing cars at the Short Line Station, where they will find the city where they can be served with an excellent meal at Butler's

Hotel at all hours.

Trains of the Short Line make direct connections with Frank Lakes at Cincinnati for all points North and East.

Tickets for sale

"Via Louisville and

the Short Line."

At All Ticket Offices in the South and Southwest.

J. M. MACDONALD, Gen. Sup't.

S. F. PARKER, Gen'l. Pass. Agent.

Louisville, Kentucky.

WHEN YOU GO EAST OR WEST

Take the

Ohio & Mississippi R. R.

The Peoples' Line.

THE REASON WHY.

It is the ONLY line now running daily through

the only line now running daily through

the only line now running daily through

the only line now running daily through

the only line now running daily through

the only line now running daily through

the only line now running daily through

the only line now running daily through

the only line now running daily through

the only line now running daily through

the only line now running daily through

the only line now running daily through

the only line now running daily through

the only line now running daily through

the only line now running daily through

the only line now running daily through

TOPICS OF THE TIME.

GARRIBALDI has written to the Agrarian

League of Rome that he hopes the day is not far distant when Krupp guns and ironclads will be turned into plowshares and pruning-hooks. That day does seem a little distant at present.

The maddest man in Wisconsin is John

Leigh, of Oconto. He was a candidate for member of the assembly, and being a conscientious man he voted for his opponent. His opponent was elected by justly majority. It won't do to have such prejudices when one is running for office.

NOTWITHSTANDING the law passed by Congress a few years ago, the mania for destruction of game on the Western plains continues. Gov. Thayer, of Nebraska, says that not long ago a party of elk hunters killed one hundred elk and simply took away the hides. This, he truly adds, is tantamount to animals

as well as a grievous wrong to the people.

A SAN FRANCISCO judge decided, the other day, that the marriage of an uncle with his niece was perfectly legal, as the statute of California was silent on the subject, and only interdicted bigamy and the marriage of whites and blacks. The parties have been married twenty years,

but as their idea for separation was con-scientia, the bond could not be dissolved until the Legislature passed a special act.

EDWIN FORRESTER had a peculiar fondness for dogs. As you ascended the main stairway of his residence in Philadelphia

you faced on the first landing the painting of the "Dog of Montargis," which he habitually characterized to his visitors as a portrait of the best friend he ever had in the world—the friend which had followed him in the varying and trying for-lunism of his early life, and more than once played with him on the boards of the Western towns when he acted the character of that now almost forgotten

melodrama.

It appears from the criminal and judicial statistics of Ireland for 1874, complied by Dr. Neilson Hancock, which have just been issued, that the number of serious crime in Ireland has been diminishing for the past four years, and the number of indictable offences in 1874, which was 6,662, is less than in any year since 1864. There is a remarkable de-

THE FLAMINGO.

BY SAMUEL D. CARR.

The red flamingo flew up from the south,

From the land all glittered and parched with drought.

He glided on the sky like a flamingo brand,

Blown from a burning prairie land.

He sailed deep through the darkness,

In the midnight haze, and the cold dark

When the wind blew east, to the sea he went,

And the sun in the distance.

And turned aside, with a look ahead,

At the empty eye of the sunset.

And the eagle, with a hundred years,

From the height of his vaulted eye spied.

When the wind blew west, to the fields he sped,

And the blue-eyed giant lifts his head;

And the dew-faded red to a sunset dye

On the purple haze, and the cold dark

When the wind blew east, to the sea he went,

And the sun in the distance.

And turned aside, with a look ahead,

At the empty eye of the sunset.

And the eagle, with a hundred years,

From the height of his vaulted eye spied.

When the wind blew west, to the fields he sped,

And the blue-eyed giant lifts his head;

And the dew-faded red to a sunset dye

On the purple haze, and the cold dark

When the wind blew east, to the sea he went,

And the sun in the distance.

And turned aside, with a look ahead,

At the empty eye of the sunset.

And the eagle, with a hundred years,

From the height of his vaulted eye spied.

When the wind blew west, to the fields he sped,

And the blue-eyed giant lifts his head;

And the dew-faded red to a sunset dye

On the purple haze, and the cold dark

When the wind blew east, to the sea he went,

And the sun in the distance.

And turned aside, with a look ahead,

At the empty eye of the sunset.

And the eagle, with a hundred years,

From the height of his vaulted eye spied.

When the wind blew west, to the fields he sped,

And the blue-eyed giant lifts his head;

And the dew-faded red to a sunset dye

On the purple haze, and the cold dark

When the wind blew east, to the sea he went,

And the sun in the distance.

And turned aside, with a look ahead,

At the empty eye of the sunset.

And the eagle, with a hundred years,

From the height of his vaulted eye spied.

When the wind blew west, to the fields he sped,

And the blue-eyed giant lifts his head;

And the dew-faded red to a sunset dye

On the purple haze, and the cold dark

not love me should not I be the first to know of it? No, do you see our little house peeping out from the trees up in the fields over there? How delightful it will be to live there, Max, with all the flowers growing in at one's window!

And Karl is providing this home for me!

Ah, little Max, this looks rather like loving one, doesn't it?"

Max was silent, and kept his face turned away, with a slight frown on his brow.

"I wish I could suddenly grow big,

Kreencenz," he said abruptly.

The sister laughed. "My dear, you must wait," she said, gayly. "Bye and bye you shall copy your brother Karl,

and if you can manage to grow like him

you will do very well. In the meantime you are not quite so small as you were,

my boy, when I first took you in my arms and carried you about our poor garret, trying to put you to sleep.

Mother had died the day before I was ten years old, and you were only born. I was a very little nurse, wasn't I? But it seemed to me that my heart was a hundred years old. How proud I was of you, and how I loved you!"

"And you worked for me, didn't you,

Kreencenz?"

"Ah, didn't I? We were alone in the world, you and me. I paid a poor old woman—a very, very old woman, who could not do anything else—I penny a day for taking care of you, and I worked for us two. I was a strong little girl, and as industrious as a bee. People gave me work to do; it was very hard until I was about fourteen, and then I learned to sew, and things began to be better. At sixteen I was able to rent a little room for myself, and so I came home. Ah, Max, how often have we been hungry together! and yet you are a brave boy for your age. I have pulled you through the worst, and now

God has taken us both into happiness and safety. No more scanty crusts for you. No more sitting up all night, sewing by candle, for me. No more pinching at the heart when rent day is coming round. Who could have thought of it, that Karl, whom every one admired, should have sought out for me? I did not accept him hastily, Max, for I was afraid he might change his mind, afraid that he did not know what he was say-

"No, dear, I shall not die. Fetch me some water, and tell nobody."

Max obeyed, and while the red light

paled on the Moselle, and purple mingled with the crimson and olive of its banks, the girl's white face lay on the mosaic, gazing blankly upward with fixed eyes. The tears trickled over Max's innocent cheeks as he nestled at her side and kissed her lips, her hands, and her

The Interior Journal.

STANFORD, KY.

Friday Morning, December 3, 1875.

W. F. Walton, Editor and Proprietor.
T. R. Walton, Jr., Business Manager.

It is the almost unanimous opinion of the public and of prominent newspaper men of both political parties, that we are now without a leader among statesmen in the Republican or Democratic ranks. A man of brains, or pioneer, as it were, of the national spirit of State, does not live at the present time. Clay, Webster, Calhoun, Douglas, Cass, Sumner, Chase, and others of their ability, have left us without a single man to wear the mantle of either. Who is the "coming man" is the question. It is said that occasions and circumstances make the man, and not the reverse. If that be true, the occasion and circumstances are now surrounding us as a people. Never before in the history of the Republic, has there been a better time for a man of real ability to gain an eminence not less elevated than the positions held by the dead leaders of the past. From which party he may come, if from either, or whether he comes at all, remains for time to develop. He does not exist at this time, most assuredly.

W. B. Astor's wealth was enormous.

Peter Cooper, himself a millionaire, says it is almost incalculable. John Jacob Astor, his father, left about twenty million, and died at the age of 83. His son, to whom he bequeathed the bulk of his vast estate, died at 84 worth between one hundred and fifty and two hundred millions of dollars. Besides the thousands of houses he owned in New York and Brooklyn, he also owned the whole town of Green Bay, Wisconsin. Although so far along in years, Mr. Astor went to his office daily until within a few weeks ago.

THE Philadelphia Times refers to the death of Vice President Wilson and Wm. B. Astor, which occurred within a few days of each other.

Over one it says, "A Nation mourns and says we have lost a good man." Over the other, "people are only curious to know how much he was worth and what he did with it by last will and testament." The one "devoted his life and energies to gaining that which he conceived to be his country's glory, and the other struggled to become the richest man in that country."

Gov. INGERSOLL, of Connecticut, has appointed ex-Governor English, of that State, Senator, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. O. S. Ferry. Mr. English is a Democrat. Our party has gained ten Senators in the present Congress. If we are successful in the next two years, which seems altogether probable, we will have a majority in that body when the next President takes his seat. What a glorious time we'll have, with a Democratic Chief Magistrate and Congress!

THEIRS are always busy concocting new plans to make successful raids upon honest people. The latest "novelty of design" was exhibited in Louisville the other night, when a band of midnight serendites went to a store, and while one-half of them were discoursing sweet music to the delight of the awakened inmates, the other half made a raid upon the rear door, broke it open and stole what they wanted.

So says a local reporter of the Courier-Journal.

KENTUCKY is richer in minerals and ores than any other State in the South.

The only way to ascertain her resources in that respect, is to have a thorough geological survey. We have conversed with a number of our legislators as to the appropriation of a further sum to aid in the survey, and from what we can learn, so far, there is a decided sentiment in favor of a much larger appropriation than has been heretofore given. The people would endorse it heartily.

THE editor of the New York Sun, in speaking of the three prominent men who aspire to the Speakership of the U. S. Senate, says he has loved Randall ever since he made such a grand battle against the Force Bill; that he has great faith and love for Mr. Cox, but when it comes to the point of choosing a speaker he advises all of the opposition to vote for M. C. Kerr of Indiana—not that he loves Randall and Cox less, but Kerr more.

SOME of the Northern newspaper editors assert that the cause of the postoffice deficiency of $3,000,000, is the "great extent of our territory, and the illiteracy of the South and West." They think because our editors, ministers, lawyers, teachers, governors, etc., do not wear gold-banded spectacles at thirty, and become bald-headed at thirty-five, that we are an illiterate set of asses—men and women. They believe that those conditions are prima facie evidence of immense brains greatly worked, and in their absence no man or woman can be a scholar. What have these things to do with the expenditures and receipts of the postoffice Department? Echo answers—what?

A WITNESS in one of the trials of the whisky ring at St. Louis, the other day, said it was reported that Secretary Bristow owned an interest in a liquor house at Louisville. The Secretary has made an indignant denial of the charge, and says it is a most infamous lie. He desires a full and searching investigation into the report by the Grand Jury, and to that end, demands that all the witnesses be summoned to tell what they know.

JOEL T. HART, the great Kentucky Sculptor, who has resided in Italy for a number of years, has completed the plaster cast from the model in clay, of his wonderful work of Art titled "Triumph of Chastity," upon which he has been at work for eleven years.

No-waiting the law of the State which prohibits a rat or severe penalty against those who bet or gamble on elections, we notice that thousands of dollars are offered to bet in the race for the Mayorality of the city of Louisville. More than this, we read in the Courier-Journal that Hon. E. D. Standiford, an ex-member of Congress from that district, and who is at present the President of the L. & N. Railroad company, is one of the most noted men who offers to put up large stakes on the result of that election! Is it possible that the plain statute laws of the Kentucky can be thus violated with perfect impunity? If these men were "common" folks, the grand juries of the city would haul them over the coals at once. As it is, however, we presume they will be permitted to go to St. Free.

W. B. Astor's wealth was enormous. Peter Cooper, himself a millionaire, says it is almost incalculable. John Jacob Astor, his father, left about twenty million, and died at the age of 83. His son, to whom he bequeathed the bulk of his vast estate, died at 84 worth between one hundred and fifty and two hundred millions of dollars. Besides the thousands of houses he owned in New York and Brooklyn, he also owned the whole town of Green Bay, Wisconsin. Although so far along in years, Mr. Astor went to his office daily until within a few weeks ago.

THE Philadelphia Times refers to the death of Vice President Wilson and Wm. B. Astor, which occurred within a few days of each other.

Over one it says, "A Nation mourns and says we have lost a good man." Over the other, "people are only curious to know how much he was worth and what he did with it by last will and testament." The one "devoted his life and energies to gaining that which he conceived to be his country's glory, and the other struggled to become the richest man in that country."

Gov. INGERSOLL, of Connecticut, has appointed ex-Governor English, of that State, Senator, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. O. S. Ferry. Mr. English is a Democrat. Our party has gained ten Senators in the present Congress. If we are successful in the next two years, which seems altogether probable, we will have a majority in that body when the next President takes his seat. What a glorious time we'll have, with a Democratic Chief Magistrate and Congress!

THEIRS are always busy concocting new plans to make successful raids upon honest people. The latest "novelty of design" was exhibited in Louisville the other night, when a band of midnight serendites went to a store, and while one-half of them were discoursing sweet music to the delight of the awakened inmates, the other half made a raid upon the rear door, broke it open and stole what they wanted.

So says a local reporter of the Courier-Journal.

KENTUCKY is richer in minerals and ores than any other State in the South.

The only way to ascertain her resources in that respect, is to have a thorough geological survey. We have conversed with a number of our legislators as to the appropriation of a further sum to aid in the survey, and from what we can learn, so far, there is a decided sentiment in favor of a much larger appropriation than has been heretofore given. The people would endorse it heartily.

THE editor of the New York Sun, in speaking of the three prominent men who aspire to the Speakership of the U. S. Senate, says he has loved Randall ever since he made such a grand battle against the Force Bill; that he has great faith and love for Mr. Cox, but when it comes to the point of choosing a speaker he advises all of the opposition to vote for M. C. Kerr of Indiana—not that he loves Randall and Cox less, but Kerr more.

SOME of the Northern newspaper editors assert that the cause of the postoffice deficiency of $3,000,000, is the "great extent of our territory, and the illiteracy of the South and West." They think because our editors, ministers, lawyers, teachers, governors, etc., do not wear gold-banded spectacles at thirty, and become bald-headed at thirty-five, that we are an illiterate set of asses—men and women. They believe that those conditions are prima facie evidence of immense brains greatly worked, and in their absence no man or woman can be a scholar. What have these things to do with the expenditures and receipts of the postoffice Department? Echo answers—what?

A WITNESS in one of the trials of the whisky ring at St. Louis, the other day, said it was reported that Secretary Bristow owned an interest in a liquor house at Louisville. The Secretary has made an indignant denial of the charge, and says it is a most infamous lie. He desires a full and searching investigation into the report by the Grand Jury, and to that end, demands that all the witnesses be summoned to tell what they know.

JOEL T. HART, the great Kentucky Sculptor, who has resided in Italy for a number of years, has completed the plaster cast from the model in clay, of his wonderful work of Art titled "Triumph of Chastity," upon which he has been at work for eleven years.

We learn that all of the lunatic asylums in our State, three in number, one each at Lexington, Anchorage and Hopkinsville, are filled with patients, and that in all probability, the next Legislature may be called upon to make an appropriation sufficient to erect a fourth asylum. When these Institutions are crowded the inmates cannot possibly receive that attention and comfort which their unfortunate condition requires. Our Deaf and Dumb Asylums are, so far, ample for the comfortable accommodation of all applicants.

The trail is hot which has been traveled over by the whisky ring men, and, strange to say, it leads towards the Capitol itself, and several of the shy foxes may be "holed" near the White House. If so, dig'em out, Bristow, the honest majority of the people of your country will applaud you for, and uphold you in the successful chase, and consider you the faithful guardian of their treasury.

It was very appropriate in brother Beecher, to mention in his sermon on Thanksgiving day, that he knew of several female public school teachers near Brooklyn, who had obtained their positions on condition that they would prostitute themselves under the circumstances, to the directors. We know of no man more eminently fitted for a Director than brother Beecher, and hereby urge his appointment.

OAKEY HALL, Ex-Mayor of New York, and a distinguished criminal lawyer, has written a drama and will perform the leading part himself at a theatre there. He has just discovered his histrionic talent and now proposes to convince the world that they have in him another Booth, if not one who is the superior of any actor or dramatist since the days of McCready and Shakspere.

THE Gas Company of the city of Brooklyn, put such prices on their gas, that the people of that city quit using it, and have resorted to coal-oil until they come down in their charges. That's the way to serve all monopolies and extortioners. It is the best known remedy for such an evil. Other corporations might be treated the same way, greatly to the interest of the public.

THE blasphemy of some men is most shameful. Hear the editor of a Chicago paper, who, in speaking of a number of men who had been hung, said, "they were suddenly jerked to Jesus." That fellow may think he has peculiar privilege because he is a newspaper man, but he should be severely punished for blasphemy and profanity, and scouted from decent society.

THE hard-money men of both parties want Senator Anthony to be chosen speaker of the U. S. Senate in place of Hon. Thos. W. Ferry, the present incumbent, because Mr. Ferry is in sympathy with the West and South as to their views on finance, while Mr. Anthony favors the bond-holders and many Kings of the North and East.

If any citizen of this country has a right to look forward to the leadership of a great party, that man is Hon. Jeremiah S. Black, of Pennsylvania. If the Democratic party would place him in a position where he could display his immense talents, we believe he would convince the world that all of our statesmen are not dead.

It having been reported that Commander Howell, of the ill-fated steamer Pacific, lost on the coast of Oregon some weeks since, was drunk at the time, a survivor comes out in a flat denial of the charge, and says that Captain Howell was duly sober and at the post of duty, when the fatal collision with the Orpheus occurred.

GEN. S. G. BURBRIDGE, the Military satrap who ruled for a time in Kentucky, during the war, with an iron hand, has found a woman in Washington City, who is willing to link her name, fame, and fortune, with his. "There is no accounting for tastes."

THE thermometer was 24 degs. below zero on Mount Washington, last Monday night. At Toronto, Canada, it fell 35 degs. in 24 hours, and the wind blew at a rate of 156 miles an hour. We may look for severe weather in a short time.

THE 43rd Congress will not get in fair working order before the middle of next week. We may expect a lively time from that date on, for several months.

BEECHER's church members are not by any means certain that he is innocent of the charges preferred against him.

GEO. M. ADAMS, so far as is known has the inside track for the Clerkship of the U. S. Lower House of Congress.

It is said that the Naval preparations going on mean something of great importance. War with Spain seems to be imminent.

THEY have found poor little Charlie Ross, for the 28th time. He is now in Des Moines, Iowa.

THE scandal concerning Gen. Babcock, the President's Secretary, grows in importance every day.

GARRARD COUNTY NEWS.

Lexington.

THANKSGIVING DAY was generally observed here the 28th; most of the business houses were partially closed, and services at the churches. The lady members of the Christian church gave a supper at the "City Hall," the proceeds ($175), of which will be given for the benefit of the church.

PERSONAL.—Miss Alice and Bettie Stodgill, of Danville, are here, visiting their sister, Mrs. W. D. Hopper.

AUCTIONS.—Mr. Robinson, of Danville, is again here with his "flat," and goods are selling for any price. Another red flag announcement to the people of Lancaster Chromoformers, in fact they have some beautiful pictures; and persons generally are availing themselves of this opportunity to beautify their homes.

We notice that our very efficient and polite Circuit Clerk, has added much to the appearance of his office, by hanging a beautiful supply of pictures on its walls and we think we can safely say, that the Circuit Clerk's Office of Garrard county, is the handsomest one in the State.

Rev. Mr. Miller, of Louisville, Ky., is holding a protracted meeting at the Baptist Church in this place, and is having good audiences. Mr. Miller is a very able man, and no doubt will do much good here. We believe the meeting is to continue through this week.

CASBY COUNTY NEWS.

Middleburg.

A PROTRACTED meeting has been going on for the past week at Mt. Salem, conducted by the Rev. J. M. Salles. Five additions.

Mr. R. McWHORTER, lies very low with pneumonia; also, the wife of Robert Ross, is very ill at the house of Mr. H. H. McAninch.

Circuit Court is still in session at Liberty. It is thought that the Criminal Department will close the whole Court, and the Civil cases will, most of them, have to lay over. Among the cases tried last week, Frank Lanham, for carrying concealed weapons, was fined $50 and sentenced to ten days imprisonment. The Commonwealth vs. G. Wash Brown, for shooting at Thos. Snow, with intent to kill and wounding him, which case has been tried heretofore, and resulted in a hung jury, occupied five days of the present Court, and the jury was again hung. Brown was prosecuted by Commonwealth's Attorney Denny, assisted by Jas. W. Alcorn, Col. Silas Adams, and others, and defended by Col. Frank Walford, J. S. Van Winkle, J. E. Hays, M. C. Sauley, R. C. Warren, Jno. D. Belden, and George Stone. The case elicited some fine speeches from the legal gentlemen engaged, and especially that of Judge Sauley, we hear very highly commended. John Saunders, charged with killing his father, who has been running at large for several years, was arrested in Green county, and lodged in Liberty jail last Sunday evening. His trial has not come up yet.

In regard to our pet horse thieves, God's case was continued, and Floyd's was set for to-day (Monday.)

STRANGELY FORGETFUL.—"Falsified" alluded last week to a young man who went hunting and forgot to attend to his own wedding. Another day was appointed, and he made his appearance. The selected hour passed, no person being on hand, on inquiry, it was found that he had forgotten either personally, or by proxy, to make any arrangements for the attendance of that necessary individual. A runner was sent out who brought in a clergyman, and the nuptial knot was tied.

We are called on to chronicle another sanguinary prize fight which took place on Main Street, in this place, on last Saturday. The candidates for championship, were a muscular Middleburg blacksmith, and a robust young farmer from near Poplar Hill. As we are not well versed in prize-ring literature, critics will please be lenient. The one we employed to take notes, arrived on the ground just as the contest commenced.

Round 1st—Vulcan elevates a stick and remarks that it is the third time that he has raised the stick, and he is going to strike. Rustic tells him to strike and be damned.

Round 2nd—Vulcan advances—Rustic recoils.

Round 3rd—Vulcan throws his stick, which Rustic dodges. Rustic casts a stone, which Vulcan attempts to dodge, but is struck on the back, the stone bouncing some distance.

Round 4th—Both make a rush for a stick. Rustic is the swiftest. Vulcan recoils. Rustic throws the stick.

Round 5th—Vulcan obtains a club. Rustic gives back, and finds a brickbat.

At the commencement of the 6th round, a 300 pound Magistrate was seen approaching, and the friends of the combatants thought best to separate them. It was decided to be a drawn fight.

ETHELBERT.

Upper Creek.

Our County Seat, Liberty, is now a scene of litigation—Circuit Court being in session. Judge M. H. Oswley is presiding with his usual dignity, and Geo. Denny prosecuting to the extent of the law. Your town we found to be well represented by some prominent members of the Stanford Bar. Among whom we'll mention Messrs. Alcorn, Sauley, Warren and others—all seemingly intent to acquit themselves with honor.

DEATHS.—On Carpenters' Creek, on the 29th ult., infant child of George Wilber on the 20th ult., infant daughter of William and Mary Lynn.

At the instance of Rev. Robert Taylor pastor of Concord Church, alias "The Beautiful Little Bethel," the citizens are going to erect a Christmas Tree, the proceeds of which are to be appropriated to the S. S.

We learn that the report given by Mrs. Wm. Edwards, was quite a success in every respect. This dinner was given on the 23d ult., it being the 25th anniversary of his life.

MR. A. CARPENTER, than whom there is none more energetic in the cattle trade, is still increasing his lot of short horns. He bids fair to outstrip any cattle raiser in this portion of Kentucky.

The members of Lodge No. 1187 I. O. G. T., propose to have an open session on the night of the 14th inst. The exercises will consist of speeches, essays, reading of Lodge paper, etc. Among the speakers selected for the occasion we note Doc. Maxwell, of Lebanon, Rev. J. Y. Lemming, of Manchester, Taylor county, Ky., and Hon. L. G. Edelman. Prof. N. W. Huges, assisted by an excellent choir, proposes to furnish music. A general invitation to all. CASEY.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HORRIBLE COAL OIL ACCIDENTS.

Would never happen if Families used FIRE-PROOF OIL!

Every day lives are lost and homes destroyed by the use of cheap kerosene Oil, or "Tins paraffin." Coal Oil is the only safe oil; but Fire-Proof Coal Oil Cannot Explode.

It burns in a lamp with a wick with a brilliant light, and lasts enough longer to make it as economical as the common oil.

CHES, CARLEY & CO.,

GREAT SOUTHERN OIL WORKS,

LOUISVILLE.

For sale in Standard by Campbell & Miller, Grocers, Louisville & Harker, 100-11.

WHEAT & CHENEY,

(Successors to Terry, Wheat & Cheney.)

WHOLESALE GROCERS,

—AND—

COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

Agents for Frankfort Cotton Mills.

No. 281 Main St., bet. Sixth & Seventh,

Opposite Louisville Hotel.

(John L. Wheat, & Jas. J. Cheney.) [137-47] LOUISVILLE, KY.

H. C. MITCHELL,

Formerly with Ritz, Ward & Co., is now connected with the firm of

Thomas, Major & Pierce,

WHOLESALE LIQUORS!

LOUISVILLE, KY.

O. P. TOWNSLEY,

—WITH—

Jos. TROUBINE, ARAM TROUBINE, J. W. HANSEN,

A. & J. TROUBINE & CO.,

IMPORTERS AND JOBBERS OF

Foreign & Domestic Woolsens,

—AND—

Wholesale Clothiers,

No. 55 and 57, West Third Street,

125-11 CINCINNATI, OHIO.

J. E. PORTMAN. J. B. OWENS.

NEW

LIVERY AND SALE STABLE!

IN STANFORD, KY.,

PORTMAN & OWENS,

PROPRIETORS.

Have opened in connection with the Myers House a First-Class Livery and Sale Stable, and have for hire polite drivers, safe horses, new and fashionable vehicles, making the most over kept in Central Kentucky.

STYLISH TURNOUTS

A liberal share of the public patronage is respectfully solicited. 174-11

RAILROADS.

LOUISVILLE,

Paducah & South-Western

RAILROAD.

Train leaves Louisville at 8:30 a. m.

Grayson Springs..... 12:25 p. m. 12:25 p. m.

Owensboro Junction..... 8:15 p. m. 9:15 p. m.

Terre Haute..... 9:45 p. m. 10:45 p. m.

Paducah..... 9:00 p. m. 10:00 p. m.

Arrives at Louisville at 6:55 p. m.

Connecting at Owensboro Junction with E. O. & N. R. R. for Cincinnati.

At Northville with St. Louis & South-Eastern R. R.

At Paducah for all points South and South-West.

At Louisville for all points North.

D. F. WHITCOMB, Sup't.

EDWARD F. WILSON, Gen'l Frt & Ticket Ag't.

125-17 Louisville, Ky.

GO NORTH, SOUTH, EAST AND WEST,

VIA

Louisville & Nashville

AND

South & North Alabama

RAILROADS.

CONDENSED TIME OCT. 31st, 1875.

Trains leave Stanford as follows daily, Sundays excepted.

GOING NORTH.

Leave Stanford..... 9:30 a. m.

Arrive Lebanon Junction..... 1:10 p. m.

" Bardonia Junction..... 1:40 p. m.

" Cincinnati Junction..... 2:30 p. m.

Leave Louisville..... 2:55 p. m.

GOING SOUTH.

Leave Stanford..... 9:30 a. m.

" Bardonia Junction..... 1:40 p. m.

" Cincinnati Junction..... 2:30 p. m.

Leave Louisville..... 2:55 p. m.

NOTE.—Through passengers can change cars at Lebanon Junction arriving at Cincinnati Junction in time to connect with Short Line train, arriving at Cincinnati at 4:40 p. m. Arrive at Louisville in time to connect with J. M. & I. R. R., to A. M. Ry. and U. S. Mail Line Steamers for all points North, East, and West. Passengers going South via Montgomery or Memphis Lines, leave Lebanon Junction at 1:40 a. m., 11:25 a. m. and 7:00 p. m. Trains leave Louisville daily, except Sunday, at 9:30 a. m., and run to Richmond with U. S. change. Passengers leave Louisville at 10:00 a. m. and over take this train at Lebanon Junction.

Pullman Palace Cars

are run North, South, East and West both ways without change, from

Louisville to Chicago,

ST. LOUIS, NEW YORK,

and the principal Eastern Cities.

Palace cars are run South both ways without change to Nashville, Chattanooga, Memphis, Atlanta, Montgomery, Knoxville, Mobile, New Orleans, Jacksonville, Ft. St. and all other intermediate points. Ticket Office at Depot.

C. P. ATMORE, Gen'l Pass & Ticket Ag't.

F. J. ANDREWS, Ag't Stanford, Ky.

125-17

JOHN H. CRAIG,

—AT THE—

TRADE PALACE CASH STORE,

MAIN STREET, STANFORD, KY.,

OFFERS AT WHOLESALE AND RETAIL PRICES

AN IMMENSE STOCK OF DRY GOODS AND NOTIONS,

Prints in all colors and shades, Brown and Bleached Cottons,

Canton Flannels, 5-4 and 10-4 Sheetings, Plain and Twilled Flannels.

Opera Flannels in any shade, Rob Roy Flannels in beautiful

Checks and Plaids for Misses and Children, Repellent Cloths,

Plain and Plaid Linseys, Dress Fabrics in the Latest Styles,

Bed Tickings, Turkey Red and Damask Table Linens, Irish Linens,

Ladies' Misses', Children's Hosiery in cotton lambs wool,

Fleece-lined, all grades, every shade in stripes, Dress Buttons,

Ladies Corsets in great variety, Ladies' Merino Vests, Linen Cuffs and Collars, Kid Gloves in great variety.

Ladies, Misses and Children's Balmoral Skirts, A beautiful stock of Shawls

In every color, Ladies' Misses' and Children's fine Shoes a Specialty.

And every thing usually kept in a first-class house.

FIRST-CLASS GOODS AT BOTTOM PRICES FOR CASH.

LOCAL NOTICES.

CHEAPEST and best groceries at S. B. Matheny's.

100 Cads Virginia Twist Tobacco at S. B. Matheny's.

300,000 choice brand cigars at wholesale at S. B. Matheny's.

FOR SALE or RENT—House and lot in suburbs of Stanford. Apply to J. Bright.

WHISKIES, Brandy, Wines, Cider, Tobacco, Lard, and Groceries at wholesale by S. B. Matheny, Depot street, Stanford, Kentucky.

MATHENY & MARSHALL have just received a large stock of Suits, Pants, and Overcoat Goods, and are prepared to make them up in the latest styles.

THE place to get a bargain is at the Great Clothing House of J. Winter & Co., corner 3d and Market Streets, Louisville. Prices have been reduced, and now is the time to buy.

If you want a good fitting suit of clothes—made in the latest style, and out of the best material, with right up to Matheny & Marshall's Tailoring establishment, north side Main street.

When buying your new suit do not forget the old reliable house of J. Winter & Co., corner 3d and Market Streets, Louisville, has the largest stock in the city to select from, always gives a good fit, and sells at reasonable prices.

IT MAY SAVE YOUR LIFE—There is no person living but what suffers more or less with Lung Disease, Coughs, Colds or Consumption, yet some would die rather than pay 75 cents for a bottle of medicine that would cure them. Dr. A. Boecher's German Syrup has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderful cures attest every one that tries it. If you doubt what we say in print, cut this out and take it to your Druggist, Boston & Stagg, and get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it, or a regular size for 75 cents.

HOME JOTTINGS.

That "last load of apples" was in town again the other day, and still they come.

The oldest known resident of this county, is 90 years, and he bids fair to live to pass 100.

The combined weight of three Lincoln county residents is 790 pounds, and the combined age of three others is 280 years.

A GENTLEMAN from the lower part of this State says he would like to establish a tannery here if he could get a suitable site.

SINCE the heavy frost of winter has come upon us, the physicians of this locality say they have few calls, which are "far be tween."

A MUCKSTER from the mountains of Fentress county, Tenn., sold 20 venison hams in town yesterday, at 12 cents per pound.

The cold weather of Tuesday last, and other days, was expected, when we saw that the thermometer was 11° below zero at Siena City.

THE hotels of Louisville offer reduced rates of fare to the delegates of the State Orange which will meet in that city on the 7th of this month.

PULASKI county will build a $10,000 jail. Her tax payers all grumble, as their splendid Court House recently built caused them to go down pretty deep into their pockets.

COME to Court next Monday. You can take your choice, as the Circuit and Quarterly will both be in session on that day. A large crowd is expected in town and considerable stock will be on sale.

A POCKET-BOOK containing $110 was taken from the depot here, last week, by some person who is not known by Mr. Anthony, the Agent. No clue to the thief or money, has been had so far.

ABOUT the middle of this month, our merchants who always "lay in" a full supply of Christmas toys, confectioneries, &c., will begin to open them in endless variety. Look out for many curiosities, young folks.

A MAN named John Meeks, shot another named John Anderson, in Harrodsburg, last Saturday night. He put a load of shot in his arm, and it had to be amputated above the elbow. Meeks was placed on $200 bail.

TWO MARKETS—Campbell & Miller quote choice yellow butter at 25c; fresh eggs 20c; dressed turkeys, for next weeks delivery, 80c; flour $3 75; meal 60c; sausage 12c; and solicit the trade in these articles of home produce.

ONE of the negro burglars who was shot in Danville last week, died last Wednesday, and the other will recover. The negro Robertson, the in-mart, was taken to Somerset, on a charge of murder and burglary. He seems to be a bad scamp.

IT will be seen from advertisements in this issue, that we will club the Interior Journal with Harper's Weekly for $5; with the Cincinnati Weekly Commercial for $2 50. This is a great reduction and offer, of which no one should fail to take advantage.

A PROTRACTED meeting has been in progress in the Baptist Church at Lancaster, since the 25th ult., under the preaching of Rev. Harris and Miller. There have been several additions, among whom, is Colonel Fletcher, of the U. S. A., Commander of the Military Post at Lancaster.

An infant colored child of Smith Emory, aged about four months, was found dead in bed last Sunday morning. It had not been sick, and the mother did not know it was dead until it was cold and rigid. The Coroner's inquest found a verdict of death from an unknown cause.

The following notice was given to the public recently at Crab Orchard. We hope the gentleman will get his "Colder" and the thief too: "Some one, and I believe I no how, took my Colder out of my carrel last night, and if not returned to night I shall take the proper steps to have it returned."

All those who are inclined to me by note or account, are hereby earnestly requested to come forward and settle their indebtedness by paying me the money, as I intend engaging in another business in addition to the present, and I need the funds to enable me to do so successfully.

Respectfully, E. B. HAYNES.

When we said the population of Stanford was about 1200 at present, we included the suburbs, as stated. The 702 as stated, included only the old town boundary. There are nearly as many residents in our immediate suburbs as in the town proper. Do ye see, brother Cradick?

A MAN living in the North-western part of this county, whose name we have forgotten, told us the other day, that a little child, a year old, fell into a pit which had just been dug, and received serious injuries, which may eventually prove fatal. He also said that the mother of the child was within a few feet of it when it fell in, but did not notice its near approach to the pit.

We would suggest to our worthy Town Trustees to enclose the beautiful pond that they have allowed to form in front of the Court House, and use the same as a skating rink, charging an admission fee of twenty-five cents until they can get sufficient funds to stock it with choice fish next Spring. Why, it is a big bonanza! Who wants it stopped up? Not we.

CAMPBELL, of Campbell & Miller, has well earned the flattering sobriquet of Candy Prince, and boss of the Fancy Grocery and Confectionery trade of our city; having recently received the first installment of Christmas goods; his house is crowded with lovers of sweet things every day. House-keepers in quest of supplies for the table, should give Miller & Campbell a call.

Our various pikes in this county and beyond the county boundary, on each road, are in better condition than they have been for several years past. In fact, the President and Directors seem to have taken great pride in having them in good order than they have for many years. We are glad to note this fact, as good turnpikes add much to the counties through which they are constructed.

MR. C. S. NIELD, a young man of excellent character and fine business qualifications as a printer, who has been the foreman in our office since we commenced the publication of the Journal, has gone to live with his parents at Harrodsburg, owing to their infirm health. We regret to lose Mr. Nield, and shall miss him greatly. Our best wishes go with him wherever his lot in life may be cast.

If those who own land adjacent to our town, would lay it off into quarter and half acre lots and sell, at reasonable prices, the demand for building lots is increasing all the time. Our suburbs which were laid off thus by the late H. C. Helm and John S. Hughes, were soon filled with buyers. Land in this way can be sold at prices varying from $250 to $350 per acre.

If you come to Stanford and need a nice buggy and fleet, gentle horse, just go up to Jim Ed Brule's Livery Stable, and he can furnish you with both at a moderate price. Brule says that a man should not only "live but live," and he never charges more than a fair price for his buggies and horses. More than that, he will furnish all of his customers with the best in his line, as he is determined not to be excelled by any other party in the business.

Mr. W. T. Green, who lost his comfortable dwelling house by fire recently, has the sympathy of the public more at this season of the year especially, as he will be unable to build before Spring. There have been eleven dwelling houses burned in this county in the past three months, and six other buildings, containing a number of houses, estimating an aggregate loss of over $40,000, not one-fourth of which was covered by insurance.

Eugene McRoberts, son of O. P. Roberts of Nashville, and a nephew of S. S. McRoberts, of this place, committed suicide by drowning himself in Battle Creek, Tenn., the other day. The cause of the act is known by his intimate friends, but they have not made it known to the public. The father of young McRoberts once lived in this county, and not Pulaski, as stated by the dispatch to the Courier Journal, from which we gather the foregoing facts.

THE schools in Central Kentucky, both Male and Female, are second to none in the West or South, and, in fact, we have no reason to think that any in the North or East, are superior to them. Hence, there is no occasion for those of our citizens who have children to educate, whether males or females, to send them off, at great expense, to institutions from home, where the expense would be more than doubled. Encourage home schools, and you will soon find that the children of other States will be sent here to be educated.

DANVILLE, Nov. 28th 1875.

DEAR SIR: I left a bundle in your office which please send by express tomorrow as I have my "orders" in it. I take this occasion to say that on leaving Stanford behind that splendid horse I hired of you, another man in a buggy tried to pass me. I let the animal out and reached Danville in fifty minutes. In about half an hour the man who tried to pass me drove up. I did not know I was driving so fast. If your horse is hired I will pay damages. Put him on his sleek sides and give him an extra feed at my expense.

Yours, E. B. EDWARDS.

GENERAL WILLIAMS, a prominent aspirant for the office of U. S. Senator, was in town this week, and spent a couple of days very pleasantly with my many friends and acquaintances, and as usual, wherever he goes, he makes other friends, who had heard of him so much during the spring and summer. While a guest of the Myers House he was honored by our excellent Brass Band with a delightful serenade, to which he responded in a very neat and graceful speech, which was well received and loudly applauded. The General left on Wednesday for Louisville, well pleased with his visit among us, and conscious of having made a number of warm friends.

AMONG the serenaders who honored Gen. Williams a few nights since, was Tom Richards, who acted as bugler during the war in one of the General's Cavalry regiments. To recall to his mind scenes of the past, Mr. Richards blew several calls on his bugle, and in his response, the General said: "When I heard those sounds, I recognized immediately from whence they came, for no man can rival Tom Richards with a bugle." The General took occasion to pay Mr. Richards a handsome tribute for his fidelity and bravery as a soldier. Bull's for "Tom." May his shadow never grow less.

The appointee to a West Point Cadetship was chosen at Danville this week by the Board of Examiners. Mr. D. L. Tate, of Campbellsville, Taylor county, who is a student at the Danville Classical and Military Academy, was the successful applicant over the other thirteen. He is said to be six feet high, eighteen years old, and of splendid physique. Among the competitors were four students from Centre College, two from the Danville Classical and Military Institute, one from Kentucky University, and four from High Schools in Mercer and Garrard counties.

ELOPEMENT.—There was another elopement from our county last Wednesday night. Mr. A. A. McKinney, Assistant Cashier of the Stanford National Bank, has had his eye and heart fixed upon Miss Maggie A. Wainright, of Crab Orchard, for many months. This young couple, accompanied by several sympathetic friends, for Nicholasville after dark, and at that point took the morning train for that resort in Ohio, where the laws delay and cruel parents stand not between the union of two loving hearts, and hence, they have by this time, had their destinies united.

USEFUL RECIPE.—For delicious flapjacks, take one pint of burnt soda-leather, well oiled with essence of Juniper juice, three gills of wine of catnip, eight gills of cream of tartaric acid, four ounces of sublimated potassium of value-fall of monkeys, four barrels of well matured axle grease, a yard of blind-birds, thirteen tons of humming birds' tongues, eleven drops of sea-water, sixteen tanks of Au De Poisson, and a hoghead of venetian red; mix in a teaspoon and bake in a patty-pan. Serve cold as a sauce on tea. The ingredients, we suppose, can be bought from Al. Hoffman or Bill McKinney.

Now that small-pox is in the land, it may be well enough to publish the following remedy, which we clip from the Courier-Journal:

Fort Springs, Greenbrier Co., W. Va., Nov. 24, 1875.

Perceiving through the papers that they are suffering with small-pox in Cincinnati, I send a recipe that is said to be an infallible cure, which you can make public through your paper: S. I. of cine, 1 gr.; digitalis, 1 gr.; add 1 teaspoonful sugar; mix them in 4 oz. water, and give tablespoonful every hour, according to age. It is also a good remedy for scarlet fever. Very truly, G. W. CURRY.

INSANE.—A case of insanity occurred in Pulaski county, a few weeks since. Mrs. Polly Glass, wife of George Glass, and the youngest daughter of the late Judge Tunstall Quarles, of the Mountain Circuit, became wildly insane, on the subject of religion. She had been a strict member of the Baptist Church for years and was a woman of fine sense. Last Saturday she was taken from her home, and on Sunday she was in charge of three men, all of whom were required to convey her safely. Her demonstrations were violent, and her profane expressions to all who went into her presence, would be worthy of a sailor. Her family connections are good, and they have the sympathy of all their neighbors and acquaintances. But little hope is entertained of her recovery.

LAND, STOCK, AND CROP ITEMS.

Prices for feeding cattle are better.

CATTLE still have a downward tendency in the New York market.

An extra lot of feeding cattle sold for 5 cents in Madison county, the other day.

G. W. ALFORD sold a large lot of hogs at Louisville, last week, at $7 65, and bought them at 7c.

JOHN TUCKER, of Boyle county, sold to Goff, of Clark county, 76 cattle, averaging 1612 lbs., at 5c.

JOHN TUCKER, of Boyle county, sold to G. J. Givens, 41 feeding cattle, averaging 1110 pounds, at 4c.

L. A. MOORE, sold 40 head of slop cattle to James Warthen, of Marion county, averaging 991 lbs., at 3c.

TWENTY-FOUR car loads of fat hogs left Lancaster for Louisville last Monday night and Tuesday morning, the property of different persons.

WOODS & SALTER, sold to Goff, of Clark county, 64 head of cattle, averaging 1500 lbs., at 6 cents. These are the John S. Gill cattle, of Garrard county.

FARM WANTED.—I want to rent a farm of 200 to 300 acres for the ensuing year. Address me at Hustonville, Ky.

M. G. LACEY.

We hear frequent calls for farms wanted to rent. Those of our read-ers who desire to rent out their farms would do well to advertise them in our Land, Stock and Crop column.

THERE is a large scope of land just before the Richmond Junction, on an elevated place, which, if laid off into building lots, would afford ample room for the building of houses, and it would sell well.

MISSISS. GOODIN & EDMISTON, of Fish Point, bought $1000 worth of hogs at that point last Saturday, at 7 cents. They came from Knox county, for shipment to Louisville, but were sold above, and both buyers and seller did the right thing.

A MAN came to town the other day, pretty drunk, and asked a number of our citizens if they "wanted to buy any pork." When asked how much "pork" he had to sell, he replied: "about one hog." As that one was not enough to fill a car, he was compelled to drive it back home.

SOME of the finest lots of hogs we have seen this season, have been driven to town this week, many of which were intended for home use, but some of which were put on the cars to be taken to Louisville, to be slaughtered by the pork-packer. The average price paid for them was 7c.

On an average, the State of Kentucky has never produced finer corn crops than that of the present year. Surely, with meal at 50 to 60 cents a bushel, there is no prospect of a famine. "Bread is the staff of life." Let no one fear that he will be without it this year, if he or she will honestly strive to get it.

JOHN S. GILL, of Garrard county, has 20 acres of corn near Lancaster, on the place known as the "Letcher farm," which will shock out seven bushels of corn to the acre. This is quite 16 barrels to the acre. But little land in the world can produce this quantity of corn to the acre. It is an extraordinary yield, certainly.

ABOUT six years ago, a gentleman living in Danville, bought forty acres of land lying a short distance from the city, which he divided into streets and lots, and then sold the same for five or six times its amount he gave for it. The same might be done in the neighborhood of Stanford, if any one had the pluck to undertake it.

THE best horse men keep their animals in good flesh. The way they do it, is quite simple. No matter how hard you work a horse, and no matter how long you work a horse, you will find him regularly, with a change of food, plenty of salt, and enough rest, good grooming, and kind treatment, your horse will never need such humbug as "condition powders."

It is a well known fact that the Astor's would never sell real estate. They would buy lots and lease them to those who would build houses upon them, and they would also lease houses for a term of years, but to sell either land or houses, was not their purpose. The result was that the lots and houses greatly advanced in value during the period of lease, and that is what made them so rich in the end.

THE account given in the Advocate last week, of a large yield of corn and tobacco on the farm of "Uncle Jack Brumfield," of Garrard county, and which crops were said to have yielded him a large sum, did not fully state the entire yield, as the fodder of the corn was not embraced in the estimate. When that is added, the sum realized on the entire crop, will be five dollars per acre more than the estimate made by the Advocate. John Y. Leavell, an adjoining farmer to "Uncle Jack," says the estimate made is a fair one, as he has a large field of corn lying along side of this, and he knows it is right. "Uncle Jack" and "Uncle John Y." are both widowers.

ATONOS the stream known as "Hanging Fork," in this county, from a point above the town of Hustonville, in the West End, to the point where it empties into Dix River, there can be found the best lands in all the county of Lincoln. All kinds of crops can be raised in the greatest abundance during the winter season, and farm laborers who are willing to work can always find employment at reasonable wages. There is no sense shown in our citizens moving off to the South or West. If they will remain here in old Kentucky, or stay where they are, in Virginia, or the better portions of Tennessee, they will find it far better than to risk their fortunes in a new State, or an old one either, the climate and soil of which they have never tested. It is better far, to stay where you are, if you are doing reasonably well, than to make an effort to do better in a climate of which you know nothing.

C. S. R. R. ITEMS.

ENGINEER H. S. CRAIG, informs us that there are nearly 300 feet of the iron trestle work put up at the Green River bridge. This trestle, when completed, will be 1100 feet long.

The tide in the Cumberland river is nearly high enough to permit steamboats to run up to the crossing of the railroad. When they can reach that point the shipment of material for the road, via Nashville, will be large.

W. W. SCARBOROUGH, one of the Trustees of the C. S. R. R. has resigned. Can't all of the others do likewise? A trip to Europe would improve the health of the whole board amazingly.

THE

DETROIT FREE PRESS

is one of the richest

NATIVE HUMOR, STORIES, SKETCHES, INTERESTING GENERAL LITERATURE, POETRY, CHESS, PUZZLES

AND A FULL

COMPENDIUM OF NEWS.

By special arrangement, we can furnish

The Interior Journal

—AND—

DETROIT FREE PRESS.

For $3 00.

Send your Subscriptions to us.

A COMPLETE PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE TIMES.

The Best, Cheapest and most Successful

Family Paper in the Union.

Harper's Weekly

ILLUSTRATED.

Notions of the Press.

Harper's Weekly is the ablest and most powerful illustrated periodical published in this country. Its editorial, scholarly and convincing, and carries much weight. Its illustrations of current events are full and fresh, and are prepared by our best designers. With a circulation of 150,000, the Weekly is read by at least half a million persons. Its articles are models of high-toned discussion, and its pictorial illustrations are often corroborative arguments of no small force.—N. Y. Examiner and Chronicle.

Its papers upon recent questions and its timely cartoons, help to mould the sentiment of the country.—Pittsburgh Commercial.

Harper's Weekly stands at the head of illustrated journals in the United States in circulation, editorial ability, and pictorial illustration.—Lancet Repository, Cin.

TERMS.

Postage Free to all Subscribers.

$4 a month, one year, $40.

$4 includes prepayment of U. S. postage by the publisher.

Subscriptions to Harper's Magazine, Weekly and Annual, can be ordered for one, two or three years, at the same rates as above.

Back numbers can be supplied at any time.

The annual volumes of Harper's Weekly, in red cloth binding, will be sent by express, free of expense, for seven dollars each. A complete set, comprising thirteen volumes, sent on receipt of cash at the rate of five dollars and twenty-five cents per volume, freight at the expense of the purchaser.

Prominent attention will be given in Harper's Weekly to the illustration of the Centennial International Exposition.

Newspapers are not to copy this advertisement without the express order of Harper and Brothers.

Address: HARPER & BROS., New York.

We will club the Interior Journal with either the Magazine, Weekly or Annual for five dollars.

Send your subscription to us.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

A NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The Interior Journal

—AND—

Cincinnati Weekly Commercial

For $2 50.

$2 50 per Annum.

Only Fifty cents more than the cost of this paper alone.

As a city weekly the Commercial offers the following advantages:

1. It is published in the West yet its news is of the world.

2. It publishes all the news in a compact form.

3. It possesses the best corps of Correspondents of any paper published on this continent.

4. Its Editors are experienced and always ready to denounce wrong and uphold right, without regard to party or creed.

5. Its Market Reports are full and thoroughly reliable.

6. Nothing will be published in its columns unsuitable for the most refined family circle.

7. Its Selections are always of the best, and no pains are spared to make it in every respect one of the best and most valuable newspapers offered to the public.

In addition to the advantages offered by the Commercial as a city Weekly, we call attention to the following in connection with our own paper:

1. We are published in the West yet its news is of the world.

2. It publishes all the news in a compact form.

3. It possesses the best corps of Correspondents of any paper published on this continent.

4. Its Editors are experienced and always ready to denounce wrong and uphold right, without regard to party or creed.

5. Its Market Reports are full and thoroughly reliable.

6. Nothing will be published in its columns unsuitable for the most refined family circle.

7. Its Selections are always of the best, and no pains are spared to make it in every respect one of the best and most valuable newspapers offered to the public.

W. F. WALTON, Publisher, Interior Journal.

DENTIST.

LEE F. HUFFMAN,

SURGEON DENTIST!

STANFORD, KENTUCKY.

Having secured the rooms on Lancaster street formerly occupied by Dr. George McRoberts, I now offer his services to the citizens of this town at a very low rate.

A. F. MERRIMAN,

DENTAL SURGEON!

STANFORD, KENTUCKY.

Office South Side of Main corner of Depot Street

Will remain permanently at his office (until further notice) to attend to those requiring his professional services. Particular attention paid to the preservation and regulation of the natural teeth. From a distance requiring full or partial sets of teeth, can have them inserted in a few hours' time, in the latest and most beautiful style of the art.

Pure Nitrous Oxide Gas administered when required. All communications promptly attended to.

161-4m

NOTICES, ETC.

SPEEDY CURE.

PRESCRIPTION FREE.

For the speedy cure of Nervous Debility, Weakness, Optic Easing, Brumness, Catarrh, Asthma, Consumption, and all other diseases of the throat, chest, lungs, and bowels, Dr. WIGGIN, Charleston, Mass. 178-7

NEW FALL MILLINERY.

MRS. M. E. DAVIES,

NEAR DEPOT, STANFORD, KY.

Is now receiving a full and complete stock

Fall and Winter Millinery!

HATS AND BONNETS.

Of all the most approved styles, and at all prices together with a comprehensive stock of Novelties and Fancy Goods!

Selected by herself with unusual care.

AN REMEDY IN

